ANNOUNCEMENT

This announcement is made at the request of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

The directors of (the “Directors”) of Tradeeasy Holdings Limited (the “Company”) have noted the fluctuation in the price of the shares of the Company and wish to state that the Directors were recently approached by an interested party for a possible acquisition by the interested party of the assets or the shares of the Company (the “Possible Offer”). The structure of the Possible Offer whether in form of assets or shares acquisition has not been decided. If the Possible Offer is finally decided to be in the form of shares acquisition, the interested party will likely acquire a controlling interest in the shares of the Company exceeding 30% of the existing total issued share capital of the Company. As such, the Possible Offer if proceeds in the form of shares acquisition by the interested party will trigger a mandatory offer under Rule 26 of the Code on Takeovers and Mergers (the “Takeovers Code”). The Possible Offer was therefore passed by the Company to the Company’s controlling shareholder, CCT Telecom Holdings Limited, to consider the possible disposal of shares in the Company. The management of the Company is currently in discussion with such interested party in this regard. As of the date of this announcement, the Directors confirm that there are no negotiations or agreements relating to the Proposed Offer that are legally binding and are required to be disclosed under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange (the “GEM Listing Rules”).

RESPONSIBILITIES OF STOCKBROKERS, BANKS AND OTHER INTERMEDIARIES

Stockbrokers, banks and others who deal in relevant securities of the Company on behalf of clients have a general duty to ensure, so far as they are able, that those clients are aware of the disclosure obligations attaching to associates and other persons under Rule 22 of the Takeovers Code and that those clients are willing to comply with them. Principal traders and dealers who deal directly with investors should, in appropriate cases, likewise draw attention to the relevant Rules of the Takeovers Code. However, this does not apply when the total value of dealings (excluding stamp duty and commission) in any relevant security undertaken for a client during any 7-day period is less than HK$1 million.

This dispensation does not alter the obligation of principals, associates and other persons themselves to initiate disclosure of their own dealings, whatever total value is involved.

Intermediaries are expected to co-operate with the Executive Director of the Corporate Finance Division of the Securities And Futures Commission or any delegate of the Executive Director (“Executive”) in its dealings enquires. Therefore, those who deal in relevant securities should appreciate that stockbrokers and other intermediaries will supply the Executive with relevant information as to those dealings, including identities of clients, as part of that co-operation.

Should the Company enter into any formal agreement which requires disclosure under the applicable provisions of the GEM Listing Rules, further announcement will be made by the Company promptly.

Nonetheless, the board of Directors (the “Board”) wishes to emphasize that the Possible Offer may or may not proceed. Shareholders and potential investors of the Company should exercise caution when dealing in securities of the Company.

Save for the information disclosed above, the Board confirms that there are no negotiations or agreements relating to intended acquisitions or realisations which are discloseable under Chapters 19 to 20 of the GEM Listing Rules, neither is the Board aware of any matter discloseable under the general obligation imposed by rule 17.10 of the GEM Listing Rules, which is or may be of a price-sensitive nature.
